

1984

Lesson #7

Informal Quiz

I. At the beginning of Part II - Chapter Seven, Winston tells Julia that he thought he had _____.

- a. Killed his mother
- b. Been in love with Katharine
- c. Been followed by the Thought Police
- d. Been caught writing in his diary

Informal Quiz

2. What does Winston remember stealing from his baby sister?

- a. A piece of bread
- b. A bottle of milk
- c. A piece of chocolate
- d. A small bag of sugar

Informal Quiz

3. Where was Winston taken after his mother disappeared?

- a. To a forced-labour camp
- b. To a prole foster home
- c. To a training center for the Junior Spies
- d. To a colony for homeless children

Informal Quiz

4. What makes Julia utter a squeak of surprise in Part II - Chapter Eight?

- a. O'Brien is able to turn off his telescreen
- b. She is almost captured by the Thought Police while on her way to meet Winston
- c. Winston admits that he has little reason to believe O'Brien is a secret rebel
- d. She sees a woman and her child showered with bullets in the street

Informal Quiz

5. Martin pours Winston, Julia, O'Brien and himself a glass of what otherwise inaccessible drink?

- a. Whiskey
- b. Coffee
- c. Tea
- d. Wine

Informal Quiz

6. Of the long list of rebellious actions that O'Brien names, which does Julia immediately refuse to do?

- a. Throw sulphuric acid in a child's face
- b. Commit suicide
- c. Lose her identity
- d. Separate from Winston

Discussion Questions

- According to Winston, what is the consequence of the Party's followers being forced to suppress their emotions?
- Winston and Julia discuss how leaving the room above Mr. Charrington's shop is their best hope of continuing their lives without being captured and tortured, but they are ultimately unable to do so. Why can't they stop?

Discussion Questions

- Why is Winston so drawn to O'Brien? What is the significance of O'Brien being able to finish the St. Clement's Church song?