

Journal Entry #1

- At the beginning of the novel, Winston's first (and perhaps most significant) act of rebellion consists of him writing "down with Big Brother" over and over again in his own journal for the first time. For your first journal entry, write a creative piece from the perspective of someone who is under the Party's control.

- Imagine and describe a typical day in the life of someone living in 1984. Discuss how you feel about being under the Party's constant supervision and control.
