

Of Mice and Men Jeopardy

Plot	Characters	Literary Elements & Setting	Book Facts & The Author	Themes
100 George tells Slim that Lennie was accused of this, which is the reason they had to leave Weed. What is rape?	100 This person cared for Lennie before George did. Who is Aunt Clara?	100 This is the place that Lennie and George leave in the beginning of the novel. What is Weed?	100 This man is the author of the novella Of Mice and Men. Who is John Steinbeck?	100 Crooks expresses this theme when he describes his life at the ranch where he spends most of his time in his room. What is loneliness?
200 Lennie kills this animal, which foreshadows his later killing. What is a mouse?	200 This character wears a glove of vaseline on his hand and high-heeled boots. Who is Curley?	200 Lennie's size and his last name are an example of this type of literary element. What is irony?	200 The book was published in this year. What is 1937?	200 This theme is evident through the relationship between George and Lennie, but also between George and Slim. What is friendship?
300 After Lennie crushes Curley's hand, the men lie and say it was crushed by this. What is a machine?	300 This character is known for his exceptional horse shoe playing skills and also tells Lennie that George may never return. Who is Crooks?	300 This is where George tells Lennie to go if he ever gets in trouble. What is the brush?	300 Of Mice and Men is set in this decade. What is the 1930's?	300 Lennie describes his own version of this theme when he dreams about the ranch and having a place of his own. What is the American Dream?

Plot	Characters	Literary Elements &amp; Setting	Book Facts &amp; The Author	Themes
400 Carlson thinks that Lennie took this from him when it was George who used this to kill Lennie. What is a luger?	400 This character hopes to join in George and Lennie's dream. Who is Candy?	400 Candy's dog's death serves as this type of literary element to Lennie's death. What is foreshadowing?	400 The author of the novella Of Mice and Men was better known for writing this popular novel. What is The Grapes of Wrath?	400 George and Carlson both enact this theme through the act of killing? What is mercy?
500 This person's murder is the climax of the story. Who is Curley's wife?	500 This character is the only one who is never given an actual name in the entire novella. Who is Curley's wife?	500 This is the river described in the novella. What is the Salinas River?	500 Many critics found fault with Of Mice and Men for this reason. What is the short length of the novella?	500 George embodies this theme by taking care of Lennie? What is self-sacrifice?