

Name: _____

Section: _____

Scene Performance Rubric
	Limited Level 2	Adequate Level 3	Thorough Level 4	Advanced Level 5
Characterization	Character is not present.	Limited characterization - breaking of character during scene.	Character has been thoroughly portrayed.	Strong choices are made to create character fully.
Memorization	Scene is not memorized.	Some choppiness and some lack of fluidity. Needs more rehearsal.	All but few lines are correct and the scene is fluid.	All lines are correct, fluid and display a command of the scene.
Projection and Vocal Variety	Scene cannot be heard or understood and is completely monotone.	Trouble hearing and understanding the scene. The scene lacks vocal variety.	Most of the scene is easy to hear and understand but needs work on either projection or vocal variety.	Scene is easy to understand and to hear. All words are clear and loud enough to hear with good vocal variety.
Overall Acting and Presentation	Presentation was dull and performance was not effectively rehearsed.	Presentation was entertaining at times. Audience had difficulty deciphering what was happening in the passage. Performance was not well rehearsed.	Presentation was well done and there is evidence that it was effectively rehearsed, but was not particularly creative.	Presentation was entertaining and seems to have been extremely well rehearsed. Students put forth a great deal of effort.

Scene Performance Rubric
	Limited Level 2	Adequate Level 3	Thorough Level 4	Advanced Level 5
Group Participation	The student does not participate actively and disrupts the rest of the group.	The student sometimes loses focus, but does not disrupt the remainder of the group.	The student is more often than not on task and actively participating in the development, rehearsal and performance of the scene.	The student is fully on task, participating in the effective development, rehearsal and performance of the scene.
Total				/25

NOTE: You are strongly encouraged to incorporate props and costumes